The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indecent questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the care which is dispensed with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so pure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity, and female weakness. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients are printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood elements.

The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, causes nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—two general tablets to the system. For positive local help, use as well.

BISHOP INGRAM'S SERMON.

The Right Rev. Arthur Foley Winington Ingram, Bishop of London, who has come to this country as the bearer of a gift Bible from the King of England for the first Episcopal chapel established in America—Bruton Church, at Williamsburg Va., preached at noon yesterday in Trinity Church, New York.

The bishop had much to say about the abuse of wealth and declared that the one most important message which he could give was that life is a stewardship, not an ownership. This, he declared, was as yet unlearned in both New York and London.

Furthermore, the bishop—who has been frequently called a socialist—let it be thoroughly understood that he is not the sort of person that the world commonly suggests. But he is very democratic, and so was the audience that heard him. Among other things he said:

"I know not to whom I am preaching. I shall be as frank here as I am in London. No man who is really a Christian would soil his Christian hands with one dollar the possession of which he could not justify in the sight of heaven."

"The one thing," he continued, "the one sentence, which above all others I would say to you, a sentence as yet unlearned in London and New York, and which if adopted would cleanse the life on both sides of the Atlantic—is life is a stewardship, and not an ownership."

"Have you ever thought why there are any rich and poor at all? That is the question I have had to face in London. They have asked me how I reconciled the belief in the good God loving all his children with the wretched million in East London, who seem abandoned by both God and man. I had to face that question and have had to face it ever since. There is but one answer—the rich minority have what they have merely in trust for all the others. Stewardship, not ownership, is God's command to every one of us."

"You are not your own. Nothing that you have is your own. We haven't learned the Christian religion if we have not learned the lesson of stewardship."

"My home has been the home of the bishops of London for 1,300 years. Suppose I should say that it was my own, and that the bishop's income from $50,000 a year was my own. I would be called a madman. The man who thinks he owns what he has in his keeping is no less a madman. This applies alike to the boy and his pocket money and to the millionaire and his millions. Disregard of this trust is the cause of all the social evils of London and New York. If every man considered himself as a steward there would be no object in dishonesty. Stewardship would do away with the tyranny of capital."

"Let every man, be he rich or poor," continued the preacher, "ask himself how he gains his money and how he distributes it, and let him test his stewardship by these questions and his answers to them."

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fever and malaria. It is the knowing ones who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malaria influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.

FLOODS IN FRANCE AND SPAIN

Dispatches from Madrid say that unprecedented rains in Andalusia have caused immense destruction of life and property. The Guadalquivir river has been converted into a raging torrent three miles wide, and bridges, houses and even entire villages have been swept away by the flood. The streets in the lower part of Malaga, capital of the province of that name in Andalusia, have been inundated, and many families have been rendered homeless. Considering the heaviness of the floods, the loss of life has not been great. So far as can be learned, 166 persons have perished. Railroad communication has been destroyed. The governor of Malaga has appealed for assistance from the government, fearing that the decaying carcasses of cattle and other animals drowned in the flood will create an epidemic.

Advices from Agde, France, say that storms, accompanied by torrential rains, have flooded the Valley of the Hérault, and the river has already overflowed the plain between Agde and Florence and is rapidly rising. The wharves at Agde are inundated, the village of Vernise is under water and other villages are entirely cut off from communication with the towns. The railroad tracks are covered with water making traffic impossible. The shipping at the mouth of
